sharing dreams of safety, connection, and purpose

As we reflect on 2024 and our Christmas campaign, I want to express my deep gratitude to everyone who bought tickets, donated, or shared words of encouragement. Your support and belief in our mission mean the world to us.

We were touched to receive so many inspiring messages from you – messages filled with hope and compassion for the children and young people we support. Your wishes for 2025 are for a world where every child feels safe, cared for, and free from harm. You imagined young people feeling truly heard and connected, never isolated, and building lives and careers that inspire purpose and resilience. Many of you wished for them to find love, joy, and a place in their communities.

It's because of our supporters that we can work towards this vision. Thank you for your generosity, kindness, and commitment. Together, we're answering the call and building a brighter, more hopeful future for young people throughout Australia.
