their call for help starts with you

Every day, Kids Helpline counsellors answer hundreds of calls and web chats from children and young people who feel lost, anxious, or alone. Each of these young voices has the courage to reach out and hope for a better future.

In a world that's becoming increasingly complex, so too are the issues young people face. Many who reach out are navigating mental health challenges, relationship breakdowns, self-harm, abuse, bullying, and thoughts of suicide. They need ongoing support, care, and connection, and that's what yourtown makes possible.

While yourtown powers Kids Helpline, it's our supporters who keep that power alive. Your generosity helps our counsellors be there – day and night, on the phone and online – when young people need us most.

Because when a young person finds the courage to reach out, their strength should never go unanswered. So, while you're waiting for the call to tell you you've won, remember, right now, there are young people waiting for our counsellors to answer.

Can you help answer that call?
