the voice they need, no matter when they need it

When a young person reaches out for help, that moment can change everything. The voice they hear must offer understanding, hope, and care.

At Kids Helpline, we provide a safe space where vulnerability is met with compassion. For many young people, especially during late hours when 70% of contacts occur, we are their only support.

But demand is overwhelming. Each day in December, over 600 young people contacted us, yet 250 couldn't get through due to limited resources.

Your support ensures we can answer more calls, giving every young person the chance to connect with a counsellor when they need it most. Thank you for your unwavering commitment to our vital cause.
